BEHIND THE GREENS

An interview with Howie Roberts,
Manager of Yas Links Golf Course

PLEASE TELL US A BIT ABOUT THE COURSE AND WHAT A 'LINKS' COURSE MEANS.

Opened in 2010 and designed by world renowned designer Kyle Phillips, Yas Links opened to worldwide acclaim being the first links style course in The Middle East. The term links comes from describing a piece of land connecting arable land and the sea. This land was usually sand based and lacked the requirements to be good arable land where the land owners could grow crops. The land is usually free draining due to its sand base, and already sculptured by the winds and the sea providing a landscape different in form and characteristic to normal farm land.

YAS LINKS IS KNOWN AS ONE OF THE BEST GOLF COURSES IN THE UAE. WHAT EFFORTS GO INTO MAINTAINING THAT?

A list of over 100 pieces of machinery and a golf course maintenance team of 40 who start their working day at 4am all contribute to the mammoth effort that goes into presenting the course in the best possible condition every day. The summer season sees major renovation works take place to provide the best possible environment for the turf to grow in a healthy aerobic environment.

HAVE ANY TOP PROFESSIONALS PLAYED THE COURSE?

Most of the leading European tour players have appeared at Yas Links at some point. From major champions such as Rory McIlroy, Sergio Garcia and Darren Clarke, to international superstars such as Ricky Fowler, Ian Poulter and Bryson DeChambeau, the feedback from all the players is that Yas Links is one of the top courses in the world.

WHAT FIRST ATTRACTED YOU TO MOVE TO ABU DHABI?

When the opportunity to work at Yas Links arose it was a no brainer considering the calibre of the course and its prime location. To work at a course of this magnitude comes along very seldom.

WHAT DOES A USUAL WEEKEND ON YAS ISLAND LOOK LIKE FOR YOU AND YOUR FAMILY?

The weekend is family time but usually we end up doing whatever my daughter wants to do. A standard weekend for me includes a family breakfast at Yas Links, followed by a golf lesson for my daughter, with a visit to one of the parks – usually the water park and then dinner at my daughters favourite Cheesecake Factory.

LIVING AND WORKING ON YAS ISLAND, DO YOU FEEL PART OF A COMMUNITY?

There is definitely a community feel on Yas Island and this will only grow as more and more new residential developments complete. You quite often see familiar faces at the Yas hotel restaurants, playing golf, walking around the mall or even enjoying the water slides at the water park.

WHAT DO YOU FEEL IS THE BEST THING ABOUT LIVING ON YAS?

Quite simply the feel of not needing to go anywhere else, as Yas Island has everything that we need from weekly grocery shopping, through to full on entertainment and all the different food themes we could possibly want.

WHICH PLACE OR ATTRACTION ON YAS, WOULD YOU RECOMMEND THAT OTHER PEOPLE LIVING IN ABU DHABI SHOULD TRY TO VISIT?

One of the best investments I make every year is the annual family multi park pass for theme parks on Yas Island. My eight year old daughter Cariad, loves the water, so the waterpark is a regular place for us to visit, breaking this up with regular visits to Ferrari World, we always have plenty to do on the island. When Warner Bros opens and we further upgrade our annual pass, there simply won't be any reason to leave the island. Yas Mall also has some great fun activities like Fun Zone for my daughter whilst my wife and I shop or visit the cinema.
